

The Fcc should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indianas Telephone Privacy law protections.

We use to receive calls all through the day and 5 to 7 phone calls each night while we were eating dinner. Now we only receive a couple calls daily. Our family time is so much better since the do not call list was established.

Sincerely,
Glen Emmett Koch